

Choose One or More Design Concepts That Satisfy the Selected Drivers

Design Decisions and Location	Rational and Assumptions
Introduce the Request Queues method to avoid server blackouts	RequestQueue is a method and storage where all the requests made by the users are queued up that have to be executed, and since we have many requests when students start registration it manages all registration and maintains a network in the background. Also, it handles reading from and writing to the cache.